DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues:

Helms does not disclose automatically adjusting the brightness level of a display in relation to what is shown on the screen of the display as taught by the applicant's invention.

Examiner disagrees:

Claims 1-6 do not teach any of "automatically" adjusting the brightness level of a display. Any controller is supposed to have software automatically operated to control the system of lighting.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gallagher, III (U.S. Patent number 6,072,383).

Regarding claim 1, Helm discloses a brightness controlling apparatus, comprising:

an evaluator (149) for detecting a feature of a certain window displayed on a screen of a display unit (Fig. 2, col. 3, lines 15-40); and a display controller (204) for controlling the brightness of said screen of said display unit according to said feature of said window, detected by said evaluator (Figs. 2-4, col. 3, lines 15-67, col. 4, lines 5-67).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

None of the prior art teaches the brightness controlling apparatus wherein the evaluator detects the type of application to be displayed in the window, and the display controller controls the brightness of the screen of the display unit according to the type of the application software detected by the evaluator.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
